

B21

Code of Conduct

You must abide by all of McGill's rules and regulations.

In case of emergency, do not hesitate to reach out to any of the numbers below:

McGill Security Services: 514-398-6378

General Security Inquiries: 514-398-4556

Emergencies: 514-398-3000

B21 is a shared space and community; please treat it as such.

Our collective actions ensure that the space remains safe, secure, and clean.

SPECIFICALLY

DO :

- Introduce yourself to, and get to know, anyone you don't know at B21.
- Treat everyone at B21 with respect and dignity.
- Check the space before you leave to ensure that you've left no trace.
- Wash your own dishes.
- Tidy up when necessary.
- Adopt a proactive attitude in caring for the space.
- Treat the computers & VR gear gently.
- If you move furniture for an event, please reset before you leave.
- Take off your shoes or boots when you come in.

DON'T :

- Let anyone unknown in, unless they are here for an event, in which case it is the responsibility of the event host to verify that they are allowed access.

- Let anyone exit through the emergency exits, unless there is an emergency.
- Drink alcohol in B21 when there is not an official permit. Failure to adhere to this rule will result in automatic suspension of access to Building 21.
- Use the space as a study space for your degree requirements.
- Use the space outside of normal hours (M-F; 9am-5pm) without consulting with B21 staff

N.B. We welcome everybody, and are committed to creating an equitable environment.

Sign: _____
B21 Community Member

Sign: _____
Anita Parmar (B21 Co-Director)

Sign: _____
Ollivier Dyens (B21 Co-Director)